Amendments initiated by source protection authority

34 (1) A source protection authority may propose amendments to a source protection plan in the circumstances prescribed by the regulations. 2006, c. 22, s. 34 (1).

Copies of proposed amendments for municipalities

(2) The source protection authority shall give a copy of the proposed amendments to the clerk of each municipality in which any part of the source protection area is located, if the municipality is affected by the amendments. 2006, c. 22, s. 34 (2).

Resolutions of municipal councils

(3) If the council of every municipality whose clerk was given a copy of the proposed amendments passes a resolution endorsing the amendments, or if the amendments only affect unorganized territory, the source protection authority shall,

- (a) publish the proposed amendments in accordance with the regulations;
- (b) give notice of the proposed amendments in accordance with the regulations to the persons prescribed by the regulations, together with information on how copies of the amendments may be obtained and an invitation to submit written comments on the amendments to the source protection authority within the time period prescribed by the regulations; and
- (c) publish notice of the proposed amendments in accordance with the regulations, together with information on how members of the public may obtain copies of the amendments and an invitation to the public to submit written comments on the amendments to the source protection authority within the time period prescribed by the regulations. 2006, c. 22, s. 34 (3).

Submission of amendments to Minister

(4) The source protection authority shall submit the proposed amendments to the Minister, together with the resolutions passed by the municipal councils and any written comments received by the source protection authority after publication of the amendments under subsection (3). 2006, c. 22, s. 34 (4).

Application of ss. 27-32

(5) Sections 27 to 32 apply, with necessary modifications, to proposed amendments submitted to the Minister under subsection (4). 2006, c. 22, s. 34 (5).
